

Look at your past history of protectionism of the US citizen and how you implement it. You should look at giants like CNN to check up on their credibility of broadcasts (easily seen) opposed to their 'entertainment' responsibilities compared to this newcomer - XM. I listen and watch and you government guys seem to be steered much too easily. Does XM need to line your pockets to survive? Yes, I'm saying that most of you are steered by unsavory politics.